arduous service during the remaining years of the Civil war, and his record covers about three years. In 1874 Mr. Goudy moved out to the western frontier of Nebraska and homesteaded a quarter section claim which he occupied for several years. On returning to Indiana from Nebraska he farmed as a renter in DeKalb and Steuben counties, and in 1880 bought the farm in Otsego Township of 120 acres where his labors were effectively directed during the rest of his life. He improved the land with good buildings and other facilities and lived there until his death on February 24, 1904. He was affiliated with the Grand Army of the Republic and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Mr. Goudy married Mary E. Dirrim. Mrs. Goudy was born February 8, 1848, a daughter of William Dirrim and a sister of Timothy H. Dirrim, whose family history has been recorded on other pages of this publication. Mrs. Goudy was the mother of eight children, namely: Fletcher; Frank, who married Mary Wells and has three children, named Flora, Lois and Marcus; Charles; Matie, who is the wife of Harvey Wilson and they have one child, Raymond; Robert, who married Golda Hall and has one son, R. Edwin; Fannie, wife of Charles Burrell and the mother of Marion, Maynard and Charles; Timothy and Crissie. Mrs. Goudy is an active member of the Methodist Church.

Fletcher Goudy, oldest son of the late Mr. Goudy, grew up on the home farm and when a young man, on June 22, 1898, enlisted in the Forty-Ninth Iowa Infantry as a United States volunteer. He served with that regiment in the Cuban war until May 13, 1899. On August 2, 1899, he again enlisted, this time in the Thirty-Fourth United States Volunteer Infantry, and served until mustered out, April 17, 1901. His second period of enlistment was for service in the war in the Philippines. Altogether he participated in one battle and eleven minor engagements. At the close of his service he was quartermaster sergeant in Company M. In 1902 Fletcher Goudy married Lola Sattison, a daughter of Fred and Martha (Haverstock) Sattison. They have two children, Dorothy and Freddie.

Joseph M. Bontrager. One of the important agricultural industries of LaGrange County is the growing of peppermint, and certain portions of the county are admirably adapted for this profitable crop. One of the principal men engaged in the business is Joseph M. Bontrager of section 5, Eden Township. He has considerable muck soil, grows a large acreage of peppermint every year, and distills large quantities of peppermint oil. He is also a general farmer and stockraiser.

He was born in Greenfield Township of LaGrange County, May 9, 1873, a son of Joseph C. and Lydia (Mast) Bontrager, the former a native of Holmes County, Ohio, and the latter also a native of Ohio. Joseph Bontrager grew up in Elkhart County, Indiana, and his wife in LaGrange County. After their marriage in the latter county they settled in Greenfield Township and spent the rest of their lives there. They were members of the Mennonite Church. Joseph M. Bontrager is the only one living of five children. His mother and the four other children all died of diphtheria within a period of two weeks. Joseph Bontrager was six years old when his mother died, and he grew up in the home of a stepmother, attending the district schools of Greenfield Township.

He remained at home to the age of twenty-one and in November, 1895, married Amanda J. Yoder. She was born in Elkhart County August 28, 1870, and was educated in the district schools. Mr. and Mrs. Bontrager started out as renters in Newbury Township, where they remained two years, and then bought 160 acres comprising their present farm. Mr. Bontrager has made extensive improvements, including much draining and tiling.

He and his wife have six children: Clara Celesta, Oliver J., Nina D., Mary Leona, Melvin J., and Willis, all of whom are unmarried and at home. They were educated in the common schools and Willis is still a student. The family are members of the Mennonite Church and Mr. Bontrager takes an active interest in democratic politics. He served as a member of the County Council and is a stockholder in the Farmers State Bank of Topeka. He breeds some high class Hereford cattle and has good grades of other live stock.

William J. Crampton. Probably the efforts of no one individual have contributed more to making Steuben County a feeding ground for large flocks of sheep than William J. Crampton, who uses most of his land in Steuben Township for that purpose. However, Mr. Crampton is a general farmer, and has much of the ability of his late father in business affairs.

Mr. Crampton was born in England, August 23, 1848, a son of William and Mary (Oatfield) Crampton. His father was born in Lincolnshire, England, in 1817, and in 1849 he came alone to America, and the following fall arrived in Steuben County, Indiana. In 1850 he sent for his family. It is said that he was so poor when he came to Steuben County that though land was exceedingly cheap in those days he was unable to pay for forty acres of virgin soil. His good management and industry enabled him to build up one of the finest farms in Steuben Township, and he reared a family of children who had many of his virtues, most of the sons developing good farms in the same vicinity.

William J. Crampton has no memory of his birthplace, and practically all his life has been spent in Steuben County. He attended the California district schools in Steuben Township and he remained at home with his parents as long as they lived and not only did the work of the farm but looked after his aged father and mother for a number of years. Later he acquired the interest of the other heirs in the original homestead of 160 acres, and has gone steadily ahead increasing his property until he has 400 acres of good land. He remodeled the old barn on the place, and constructed a handsome new barn fifty by one hundred feet, with facilities unexcelled. He also has a windmill to pump his water, and has the farm ideally arranged for his purposes. As a sheep raiser Mr. Crampton has frequently had as high as 600 head on his place to feed through the winter. He is also a buyer and feeder of cattle, and has shipped many carloads of livestock out of Steuben County.

Mr. Crampton is a republican, and he and his wife are members of the Baptist Church. He married Miss Martha Haynes. She was born in Salem Township of Steuben County, March 7, 1862, a daughter of William and Mary (Crawford) Haynes. Her parents were natives of Carroll County, Ohio, and were early settlers in Jackson Township of Steuben County, and later lived near Auburn in DeKalb County, where both died. Mr. and Mrs. Haynes had eight children, named Mitchell, Oscar, Martha, Libbie, Lawrence, Harvey, Perry and William. All are still living except Harvey.

Albert L. Shultz, whose energies for several years past have been devoted to the management of his farm of eighty acres in sections 21 and 28 in Franklin Township of DeKalb County, is a lifelong resident of that community and for many years was a teacher in the township schools. He farmed in the intervals of teaching and is now giving all his time to agriculture and the varied interests which affect him as a home owner and citizen.

Mr. Shultz was born September 24, 1870, at the old Shultz place a quarter of a mile east of where he now lives. He is a son of Curtis S. and Christina B. (Libolt) Shultz. His father was born in Ashland County, Ohio, January 4, 1845. His mother was a native of Wuertenberg, Germany, and was six years of age when her parents came to America, and she grew up in Ashland County, Ohio. The Shultz family came to DeKalb County in 1854, locating in Franklin Township, where Curtis S. Shultz grew up from the age of nine. On December 23, 1868, he married and brought his wife to Franklin Township. For a number of years he lived retired at Waterloo, where his death occurred July 4, 1915. His widow is still living at Waterloo. He was reared in the faith of the German Lutheran Church, but after their removal to Waterloo she and her husband became affiliated with the Methodist Church. Curtis Shultz was a democrat in politics, a man of fine moral character, and a useful member of his community in Franklin Township for many years. Albert L. Shultz is the only one now living of three children, one of whom died at the age of five years. Alice, who died in 1886, was the wife of A. D. Faucett.

Albert L. Shultz grew up on the home farm, just east of his present place, graduated from the common schools in 1888, and had normal training in the Tri-State College at Angola. Altogether he taught school twenty-three years, and all his work was done in his home Township of Franklin.

June 24, 1903, he married Effie Lautzenheiser, who was born and reared in Franklin Township and finished her education in the Hamilton High School. They have one daughter, Ruby P., born October 24, 1904, now attending high school. Mr. and Mrs. Shultz are members of the Methodist Church, and he is past chancellor of Butler Lodge No. 154, Knights of Pythias, and a member of the Grand Lodge. He and Mrs. Shultz are members of the Pythian Sisters and the Ancient Order of Gleaners. Politically he is a democrat and is a member of the Hamilton Co-operative Association.

HOWARD B. PERKINS. Though a native of Steuben County Mr. Perkins for a number of years has been regarded as one of the wealthy and substantial farmer citizens of Springfield Township, LaGrange County, his home being on rural route No. 2.

He was born in Salem Township of Steuben County October 18, 1867, a son of Job and Sarah (Landers) Perkins. His father was a native of Milford Township, LaGrange County, son of Enoch Perkins, one of the early settlers there. The children of Enoch and Adaline Perkins were Stewart, Job, Enoch, Sarah Mariah and Elizabeth.

Sarah Landers, mother of Howard B. Perkins, was born in Ohio January 28, 1846. Her father Joseph Landers was born in Pennsylvania and died in Ohio. In 1849, when she was three years of age, Mrs. Perkins was brought by her mother, Mrs. Catherine Landers, to Steuben County, her mother buying eighty acres of land. They had traveled by team and wagon from Ohio to Indiana. Later Mrs. Catherine Landers sold her first farm, and she died at Applemanburg in 1901, at the age of ninety-three. Mrs. Landers was born in Ohio. In the Landers family were seven children: Joseph, William, Mary Ann, Betsey, Rebecca, Sophia and Sarah, only the last two now living.

Job and Sarah Perkins were married in Salem Township of Steuben County, and for several years he operated the Landers farm. In 1870 he bought a place in Jackson Township, moved there, but had only a few years in which to improve his farm, since he was overtaken by death February 1, 1878. In 1861, at Kendallville, he had enlisted in Company G of the Forty-fourth Indiana Infantry, and saw much of the hardest service of the war, being in all the battles of his regiment, including Shiloh, Stone River and Chickamauga. Job and Sarah Perkins had two children, Howard B. and Catherine Adaline. Catherine was born July 7, 1869, and her first husband was Albert Johnson, and she is now the wife of Henry Ford, living at Hammond, Indiana. Mrs. Sarah Perkins lives with her daughter at Hammond.

Howard B. Perkins attended the public schools of Jackson Township, Steuben County. He moved to Springfield Township of LaGrange County with his mother and sister in 1884, locating at Applemanburg. He worked as a farm hand for William Dunbar and later for Mrs. William Laurent Dryer, mother of his wife. He also followed the carpenter's trade for some time.

May 25, 1898, Mr. Perkins married Mary Aurelia Dryer, who was born in Milford Township of LaGrange County October 25, 1870. The record of her parents is told in later paragraphs. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins after their marriage lived in the Village of South Milford, and he bought a house and lot in Applemanburg where he now lives, moving into that new home November 25, 1898. He also bought 111 acres, a part of the old Mallow farm. He subsequently sold two acres of this as the site of a school building. In 1901 Mr. Perkins bought seventy acres from G. F. Hall and in 1912 acquired forty acres more from Fred Seaburn. At the present time he has altogether 220 acres, constituting a generous capital and facilities for his work as a general farmer and stock raiser. In 1903 he built on his farm a fine barn 36 by 72 feet. Mr. Perkins is a republican, a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge at South Milford, and has been affiliated with that order since he was twenty-one years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins have five children: Harold B. was born April 30, 1899, is a graduate of the Springfield Township High School, finished the course of the LaGrange High School in 1918, and from October 10, 1918, until December 19, 1918, was a member of the Students Army Training Corps at Purdue University. He is now a government employe with the Bureau of Forestry. Gerald D. Perkins, the second of the family, was born August 5, 1900, and was a sophomore in the Springfield Township High School when he died February 3, 1916. The third is Laurent Roger, born May 24, 1902, a graduate of the township high school and of the LaGrange High School with the class of 1919. The fourth of the family, a son, died soon after his birth in 1908. The youngest is Mary Beth, born March 5, 1909.

Mrs. Perkins was educated in the schools of Milford Township, studied music at the Tri-State College at Angola, and later had the advantage of foreign instructors in the College of Music at Fort Wayne.

Her parents were William Laurent and Lodema (Taylor) Dryer. Her father was born in Greene County, New York, December 1, 1831, and died in LaGrange County, Indiana, in 1884. Her mother was born in Milford Township of LaGrange County April 20, 1841, and died at South Milford in 1907. Mrs. Dryer in 1893 left the home farm and lived in South Milford until her death. Her second qualities and their energy they have continuously followed this vocation of life as successful dealers; James A., born March 25, 1867; Jennie Alpharette, born January 10, 1870, now the wife of Frank S. Campbell, of Auburn. To them was born one son, Charles James, November 13, 1895.

James A. Husselman is operating the home farm and caring for his mother. After securing a good public school education he attended the Tri-State Normal School at Angola, and also at Auburn, and for twenty-five years he has been engaged as a teacher in the public schools of DeKalb county, spending his summer vacations in work on the farm.

On December 30, 1911, Mr. Husselman married Laura Clum, who was born January 25, 1876, near Hicksville, Defiance county, Ohio, a daughter of Haman and Cordelia (Dilworth) Clum. The family came to this county about 1887, and Mrs. Husselman's parents have lived in Auburn since that time. James A. Husselman is a member of the Knights of the Maccabees. A quiet and unassuming man, he is genial in his intercourse with his fellows and has made many warm and loyal friends in this community. He has had a splendid career as an educator and has had the novel experience of teaching the children of those whom he taught a quarter of a century ago. Because of his strength of character and genuine worth, he is deserving of the splendid standing which he enjoys in the community where his life has been spent.

ALBERT L. SHULTZ.

It was once remarked by a celebrated moralist and biographer that "there has scarcely passed a life of which a judicious and faithful narrative would not have been useful." Believing in the truth of this opinion, expressed by one of the greatest and best of men, the writer of this review takes pleasure in presenting a few facts in the career of a gentleman who, by industry, perseverance, temperance and integrity, has worked himself from an humble station to a successful place in life and won an honorable position among the well known and highly esteemed men of the localitty in which he resides.

Albert L. Shultz, who for many years was known as one of the most successful teachers in DeKalb county, Indiana, and who is now the owner of a fine farm in Franklin township, was born in 1870, on the old homestead about a quarter of a mile from where he now resides, and is a son of C. S. and Christena (Lybolt) Shultz. The father, who was born in Ashland county, Ohio, in 1845, was a life-long farmer, and on December 25, 1868, was married to Christena Lybolt, who was a native of Germany, having come to this county when but six years old. In the spring of 1869, Mr. and Mrs. Shultz came to DeKalb county and here he was employed at day labor. Though his employment was but humble, he was a man of sterling qualities of character, sober, steady and industrious, and by persistent energy he accumulated thirty acres of good land and two valuable residence properties in Waterloo, one of which he resides in. He is also a stockholder in the First National Bank of Butler. He was never active in politics and is inclined to be reserved in disposition. To him and his wife were born three children: Albert L. and Alice and Alonzo, who are deceased. The subject received his elementary education in the common schools and remained at home helping his father up until the time of his marriage. He is entirely self made and upon attaining young manhood's years he determined to follow the profession of teaching and to this end, in the spring of 1889 and 1890, he attended the normal school at Angola, Indiana. Having received a license to teach, he then became so engaged in the schools of Franklin township, this county, where he was employed continuously for a period of twenty-two years, having taught in every district in the township save one. All that he has accomplished in life has been done entirely by his own efforts, for when he began attending the normal school, he was compelled to borrow money with which to pay his expenses. However, during the period in which he was engaged as a teacher he carefully conserved his financial resources and eventually purchased forty acres of good land across from where he now lives and in 1903 bought an additional forty acres where he now lives, making altogether eighty acres of splendid land, none of which is worth less than one hundred dollars per acre. To the improvement of this land Mr. Shultz has given strict attention and today few places in this section of the state are better improved or more calculated to attract the attention of the passerby. The splendid and attractive house, the large and commodious barn and well kept fences reflect great credit on the owner, while the other modern and up-to-date conveniences around the place indicate Mr. Shultz to be a man of modern ideas and determined to be behind no one as far as his ability will permit. The house is heated by a furnace and lighted by an acetylene gas plant and in other ways he has shown a progressive spirit commendable in him. He is a stockholder in the First National Bank of Butler, and in many ways has shown a disposition to take an interest in and help to advance the best interests of the community in which he resides. Mr. Shultz is agent for the DeKalb County Mutual Insurance Company for Franklin township and also storm inspector for the Indiana Mutual Insurance Company.

On June 24, 1903, at the home of the bride's parents near Hamilton, Mr. Shultz was married to Effie Lautzenheiser, the daughter of Ezra E. Lautzenheiser, her birth having occurred in 1879 in DeKalb county. They are the parents of one child, Ruby, who was born on October 26, 1904. Religiously, Mr. and Mrs. Shultz are earnest and faithful members of the Methodist Episcopal church, to the success of which they contribute of their means. Mr. Shultz's industry and energy have become proverbial and though deeply immersed in his own affairs he finds time to discharge the duties of citizenship and may properly be termed the leader in the circles in which he moves.

SAMUEL WOLFE.

It is with a great degree of satisfaction to the biographer when he adverts to the life of one who has made the rough path of life smooth by his untiring perseverance and has attained success in any vocation requiring definiteness of purpose and determined action. Such a life, whether it be one of calm, consecutive endeavor, or of sudden meteoric accomplishments, must abound in both lesson and incentive and prove a guide to the young men whose fortunes are still matters for the future to determine. For a number of years the subject of this sketch has directed his efforts toward the goal of success in DeKalb county and by patient continuance has won pronounced success.

Samuel Wolfe, who owns a splendid farm in Franklin township, DeKalb county, Indiana, was born at the old homestead near Franklin Center, this county, on January 1, 1857. His parents were in very moderate circumstances, his father having a large family, and the subject of this sketch spent the most of his boyhood days away from home working at such employment as he could find. However, after the death of an older brother he returned home and engaged in the cultivation of forty acres belonging to his brother. He kept up the payment of taxes and other expenses on the place, by reason of which the ownership eventually came to him, and he sold it and bought another forty-acre tract, which still later was sold and Mr. Wolfe purchased a tract of eighty acres, his present attractive farm in Franklin township. There is probably not another farm of like character in DeKalb county most successful teachers of De Kalb County. He devotes his summers to tilling the soil and improving his farm, and during the winter months spends his time in the school-room. He has taught nineteen terms, and by his genial and courteous manner wins the confidence of his pupils, at the same time inspiring them to diligent study and thoroughness in all their undertakings. Mr. Sawvel was born in Stark County, Ohio, Feb. 11, 1847, a son of Jacob Sawvel, who came to De Kalb County the following summer. He was educated in the common school and Auburn High School, where he was under the tuitorship of Profs. McIntosh and Dills. In the spring of 1880 he moved to Franklin Township and settled where he now lives. He owns eighty acres of valuable land, all well improved. He was married Dec. 24, 1875, to Laura Phillips, a native of Wayne County, Ohio, daughter of John Phillips. Mr. Sawvel served as Assessor of Smithfield Township one term.

Allen Shultz, section 21, Franklin Township, was born in Ashland County, Ohio, April 15, 1846. His father, George Shultz, was a native of Union County, Pa., and settled in Ashland County in 1835; thence in the fall of 1853 to De Kalb County. Here our subject was reared and educated. He learned the carpenter's trade in his youth and worked at it several years. From 1869 till 1875 he ran a threshing-machine during harvest. In the spring of 1876 he bought a portable steam saw-mill, which he ran three years. He then sold the mill, keeping the boiler and engine, and bought a new mill, which he ran, in company with his brother, Franklin, three years, when he sold it and bought the Taylor's Corners' mill and moved it to his farm. This mill is of forty-five horse-power, with a capacity of 10,000 feet in ten hours. He cuts 250,000 feet of lumber annually. He owns sixty-four acres of valuable land and carries on farming in addition to running his mill. He was married Jan. 20, 1867, to Amanda Mann, daughter of Philip Mann, Sr., who was a soldier in the war of 1812 under General Harrison, and in 1842 settled in De Kalb County. To Mr. and Mrs. Shultz have been born eight children, six of whom are living—Henry, Della, Loma, Burton, Rhoba and Junie. Mr. Shultz has been a member of the Knights of Honor at Waterloo three years.

George H. Shultz, deceased, was born in Union County, Pa., June 25, 1806, and died in Franklin Township, De Kalb County, Ind., Oct. 26, 1873. He was reared and educated in his native county, and when fifteen years of age began to learn the mason's trade, at which he worked at intervals all his life. He was married April 9, 1844, to Saloma Walter, a native of Union County, Pa., daughter of Benjamin Walter, who moved to Niagara County, N. Y., in the spring of 1828, and to Ashland County, Ohio, in the fall of 1838. To Mr. and Mrs. Shultz were born ten children, eight of whom are living—Curtis, Allen, Shannon, Franklin, Rosanna, Arillie, Lewis and William. In September, 1853, they moved to De Kalb County, and settled on section 21, Franklin Township. A small patch of land was cleared on which was a small log cabin. Mr. Shultz was a hard-working, energetic man, and accumulated a good property. He was a prominent, influential man, and held several offices of trust and responsibility; among others was Trustee of the township two terms and Constable three terms. He was a member of the Lutheran church as is also his wife.

John H. Smith, section 23, Franklin Township, was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, Sept. 20, 1839. In the fall of 1844 his father, Adam Smith, came with his parents to De Kalb County and settled in Franklin Township where he still lives. John H. Smith was reared and educated in this county, attending the log-cabin schools in the winter, when his services were not required on the farm. He early acquired a knowledge of agriculture, and since attaining manhood has devoted his attention to that industry, and now owns a good farm of ninety acres. He was married Oct. 7, 1859, to Margaret Slentz, daughter of Henry Slentz, an early settler of Franklin Township. Their only child, Alice Ida, died in the second year of her age. Mr. Smith enlisted in Company F, Forty-fourth Indiana Infantry and served three years. He participated in the battle of Chickamauga, but soon after was detailed to the Quartermaster's department.

Levi Stoy, farmer, section 1, Franklin Township, was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, April 4, 1819, a son of John Stoy, a native of Stoyestown, Pa., and one of a colony of five families who first settled in Tuscarawas County. Our subject was reared in the wilds of Ohio, his only schooling being nine days to one Hambright Reese. He afterward worked for Thomas Bays, also a teacher, and received $8 a month and two hours tuition every evening. In August, 1844, he moved to Indiana and settled in Stafford Township, De Kalb County. Mr. Stoy

ON THIS 21st day of May A. D. 1879; personally appeared before me, a Notary Public in and for the aforesaid County, duly authorized to administer oaths Margaret Mann aged 65 years, a resident of Franklin Tp. Waterloo in the County of DeKalb and State of Indiana and John Shull aged 63 years, a resident of Waterloo in the county of DeKalb and State of Indiana well known to me to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who, being duly sworn, declare in relation to aforesaid case, as follows: —

That she is the widow of Phillip Mann late of Capts. Martin Blackburn's Co. of Ohio Militia Commanded by John Hindman War of 1812 and is an applicant for Widows pension No. 35.549 — She further states in relation to said claim that she made application for pension to C. M. Phillips of Waterloo Ind = and for good reasons she wishes to have the application filed herewith, and substantiated with proof - considered in lieu of the former application. She does not wish to file any further proof under the former application - and she further states that she has paid her former atty - C. M. Phillips - in full satisfaction of services rendered - and that she did not intend to employ any Mrs B. Stevens Res. of Cleveland Ohio. That they were employed by Mrs. Phillips and as the claim is imperfect and unsupported by evidence she withdraws said application in favor of the application, and proofs here enclosed - and respectfully request that Mr. Frank W. Willis of Waterloo Ind. be acknowledged as her attorney in the claim -

further declare that I have no interest in said case, and am not connected in its prosecution
